CME Disclosure Statements

These disclosures are designed to help the Medical Education audience make informed decisions about: the adoption of presented management principles, and/or the use or prescription of any products discussed in the presentation.

1) This CME activity is not supported by a commercial education grant.

2) All parties in a position to control educational content have no relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies
(i.e., companies whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients).

- Any admittance of a relevant financial relationship has been mitigated by the CME Executive Committee to ensure integrity and prevent all influence of commercialism.
- Kettering Health CME does not share learner names or contact information with any ineligible company without their explicit consent.

3) The presenter(s) has/have been asked to:
- Clearly identify any discussion that includes products that are investigational or not FDA-approved to ensure content is valid
- Discuss products using generic names only and compare them evenly with generic equivalents

Kettering Health is accredited by the Ohio State Medical Association (OSMA) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.
Kettering Health designates this live activity for a maximum of X.XX hours of AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™.
Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

The Ohio Board of Nurses accepts AMA PRA Cat 1.00™ as credit for nursing CEUs
